Travel Information

Travelling within Amsterdam

To plan your journey in the Netherlands, we recommend either Google Maps or, for public transport, www.9292.nl/en.

Uber- or standard taxis are widely available in the city.

For Public transport we recommend the following options:

1) Disposable paper tickets

In the tram and bus, tickets can be bought from the driver using your debit card or credit card. Tickets are valid for one hour.

For metro and train, they can be purchased from ticket machines that are available on every metro or train station.

2) GVB Day ticket or GVB Multi-day ticket

With all GVB trams, (night) buses and metros in Amsterdam, Diemen, Duivendrecht, Amstelveen, Schiphol and Weesp.

3) Amsterdam Travel Ticket

Provides unlimited travel on the train (NS railway), the Amsterdam Airport Express (bus 397) and Niteliner N97 (of Connexxion) between Schiphol and Amsterdam and unlimited travel for all GVB trams, day buses, night buses and metros.
